CLAIMANT DETAILS

The "Claimant" is the person or entity that acquired an interest in ordinary shares in Downer during the period from 23 July 2019 to 24 February 2023 (Relevant Period). You are able to register on behalf of more than one Claimant (which could include yourself), or you can register a claim for another person or organisation if you are authorised to be their representative. For example:

- If you bought shares individually and through a family trust or SMSF (self-managed super fund), you will need to register two claims and complete two separate registration forms – one for yourself and another for the trust or super fund;
- If have authority to bring a Claim on behalf of an organisation that owns shares (e.g. if you are the director of a company), you will need to register a claim for that organisation (rather than for yourself); or
- If you are representing someone else that bought and/or sold shares (for example if you have a power of attorney for another person, or you are the executor of an estate) or you are a professional advisor for the Claimant (such as a financial advisor), you will need to register a claim for that other person or entity.

Please provide the following details of the Claimant:

Note: If you are the Claimant, please write 'As above'.
