S ECI 2024 06051

BETWEEN:

MARK LARICCHIA

Plaintiff

- and -

WISETECH GLOBAL LIMITED (ACN 065 894 724)

Defendant

ORDER

JUDGE: The Honourable Justice Nichols

DATE MADE: 1 May 2026, amended 5 May 2026

ORIGINATING PROCESS: Writ filed on 12 November 2024

HOW OBTAINED: By consent and pursuant to r 36.07 of the Supreme Court (General Civil Procedure) Rules 2015 (Vic) (the Rules)

ATTENDANCE: On the papers

OTHER MATTERS:

- A. The date in order 15 of these Orders has been amended pursuant to r 36.07 of the Rules.
- B. The dates in the Annexures and Schedules to these Orders have been amended pursuant to r 36.07 of the Rules.
- C. This Order is authenticated by the Judge of the Court pursuant to Rule 60.02(1)(b) of the Rules.
- D. The following reasons concern Order 14 below.
- E. This Court has express power under ss 33ZF and 33ZG of the Supreme Court Act 1986 (Vic) (Act) to make orders of the kind sought (class closure orders).
- F. The principles that inform an exercise of power under ss 33ZG and 33ZF are described in Fox v Westpac; O'Brien v ANZ; Nathan v Macquarie [2023] VSC 414 and Jeremy Clarke v JB Hi-Fi Group Pty Ltd (ACN 093 114 286) [2025] VSC 664, among other decisions. See also Lendlease Corporation Ltd v Pallas (2025) 99 ALJR 834, [18]–[19].
- G. The application was supported by affidavits of the plaintiff's solicitor Phi Finney McDonald (plaintiff's lawyers), Tania Maree Noonan, Principal Solicitor, filed 27 March 2026 and the defendant's solicitor (Gilbert + Tobin) Daniel Patrick Moloney, Partner, filed 27 March 2026, each of whom have relevant experience.
- H. The Court is of the view that the class closure orders are appropriate to ensure that justice is done in the proceeding.

- I. The proceeding is well advanced and is fixed for a trial commencing 31 March 2027 and the parties will attend a court-ordered mediation by 7 December 2026.
- J. The parties submitted (and contended by way of opinion) that it is appropriate and in the interests of group members as a whole, to make the orders sought, including for these reasons:
- (i) Neither party is aware of the size of the potential class. In the absence of a class closure process, there is high degree of uncertainty about the number of group members who may wish to participate in any settlement, and the total quantum of loss suffered by potential group members. This creates a significant obstacle to a settlement (at mediation or otherwise).
 - (ii) The proposed orders include the provision by the plaintiff to the defendant's solicitors of de-identified share trade data about each registered group member which will enable the defendant and its legal representatives to make their own assessment of quantum, and therefore the defendant's potential exposure, prior to mediation, which is materially likely to increase the prospect of the matter resolving.
 - (iii) The proceeding is factually and legally complex and the trial is set down for a relatively long period of 8 weeks. In a proceeding of this size, duration and complexity, it is in the interests of the parties and group members to participate in a potential settlement as an alternative to the risks, costs and inherent uncertainty of a trial.
- K. The considerations to which the solicitors advert in their evidence support the making of orders requiring group members to register an interest in the proceeding in order to participate in any settlement reached before trial.
- L. The issues raised by the proceedings are factually complex. They are also legally complex including because some aspects of the relevant law in this arena remain unsettled. Should the proceedings not settle, the costs of conducting the trial will be considerable. If the proceedings are resolved on terms that meet Court approval, group members will have obtained an outcome judged to be in their interests while avoiding the significant additional costs of trial and the risks and uncertainties inherent in litigation. A step that is judged to be likely to assist the parties to resolve the proceedings is a step towards producing a tangible benefit for group members. The Court accepts that closing the class in this case is a step likely to assist the parties to resolve the proceedings, on the premise that the more accurate and complete the available information as to quantum, the more likely that rational settlements will be achieved (Regent Holdings Pty Ltd v State of Victoria and Anor (2012) 36 VR 424, 429-430 [20]-[23]). Where a class closure order operates to facilitate the desirable ends of settlement, it may be reasonably adapted to the purpose of seeking or obtaining justice in a proceeding and may therefore be regarded as an order that is appropriate to ensure that justice is done in the proceeding, under ss 33ZF and 33ZG of the Act. In such circumstances, orders closing the class in each case also serve the overarching purpose (Civil Procedure Act 2010 (Vic) s 7).
- M. Orders of this kind would not be appropriate were the Court not satisfied that the procedures for notification of the orders to group members were adequate. The Court is so satisfied in this case. Group members who acquired ordinary shares will be notified personally, through the defendant's share registry. The share registry administrator has contact details for all registered shareholders who acquired shares during the relevant period. Where email distribution fails, it will send the notice via ordinary post. Additionally, the plaintiff's lawyers will distribute the notice to potential group members who have registered their interest with the firm, and an abridged notice will be published in the Australian Financial Review.

- N. Regarding equity swap holders (noting that equity swaps are not recorded in WiseTech's share registry or another central registry) Ms Noonan's evidence was that equity swap transactions are typically entered into by sophisticated investors (institutional investors, financial institutions, governments and some corporations). Because the plaintiff's lawyers regularly acts for a range of institutional investors in securities class actions, the firm is aware of which institutional investors have, in the past, entered into equity swap confirmations. These orders provide that the plaintiff's lawyers will distribute the Notice to those investors, irrespective of whether they have registered an interest in the proceeding. The evidence was further that sophisticated investors routinely track news regarding Australian securities in the financial press, in particular the Australian Financial Review.
- O. The orders are subject to further order. At this point, group members are to be notified that upon reaching any agreement to settle the proceedings prior to trial, any group member who by the class deadline has not registered or has not opted out of the proceeding in accordance with the Court's orders, will remain a group member for all purposes of this proceeding but shall not, without leave of the Court, be permitted to seek any benefit pursuant to that settlement. If any group member can demonstrate unfair prejudice to them in the operation of the orders, they may apply to participate in the settlement. Whether such group members ought be permitted to participate will require consideration (at least) when the Court comes to exercise its discretion in approving any settlement reached, under s 33V of the Act.
- P. In the circumstances of this case it is appropriate to allow the class to remain closed until 2 weeks before trial.

ANNEXURE A - NOTICE

SUPREME COURT OF VICTORIA WISETECH SHAREHOLDER CLASS ACTION (GROUP PROCEEDING)

WISETECH GLOBAL LIMITED
(S ECI 2024 06051)

IMPORTANT COURT NOTICE

This is an important notice that the Supreme Court of Victoria has ordered to be published and distributed to group members on whose behalf this class action is brought and who may be affected by it.

You should read this notice carefully as it may affect your legal rights. Any questions you have concerning this notice should not be directed to the Supreme Court of Victoria. If there is anything in this notice that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.

A class action has been commenced by Mr Laricchia (the Plaintiff) in the Supreme Court of Victoria against WiseTech Global Limited (WiseTech). Mr Laricchia and group members are represented by Phi Finney McDonald.

The WiseTech Class Action alleges that between 21 August 2019 to 27 May 2020 inclusive, WiseTech made misleading or deceptive representations that breached the law, and failed to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations as an ASX-listed company.

WiseTech denies these allegations and is defending the class action.

The Court has fixed the WiseTech Class Action for trial starting on 31 March 2027.

You have received this notice because you may be a group member in the WiseTech class action.

As explained in Section D below, you may do one of three things in response to this notice:

Option 1: Register for the WiseTech Class Action by 4.00pm AEST on 3 July 2026 by completing and submitting a group member registration form via Phi Finney McDonald’s website at <https://phifinneymcdonald.com/action/wisetechn-shareholder-class-action/>. If you are unable to register online, contact the plaintiff’s lawyers by email at wisetechnshareholders@phifinneymcdonald.com to obtain a hard copy Registration Form, or submit a Registration Form (found at Schedule 1 of this Notice) by email to wisetechnshareholders@phifinneymcdonald.com or by post to Phi Finney McDonald, Suite 2, Level 24, 500 Bourke Street, Melbourne, Victoria, 3000.

If you register by the Class Deadline, you will be a “Registered Group Member” in the proceeding and, subject to further order of the Court, will be eligible to participate in any settlement reached in the proceeding. At no stage will you be liable for any out-of-pocket costs by registering your claim.

Option 2: Opt Out of the WiseTech Class Action by 4.00pm AEST on 3 July 2026. If you no longer wish to be a group member in the class action, you can opt out. You must complete and submit an Online Opt Out on the Supreme Court of Victoria’s website at <https://www.supremecourt.vic.gov.au/areas/group-proceedings/wisetechn-class-action/opting-out> or complete and submit the Opt Out Form (found at Schedule 2 of this Notice) to the Registry of the Supreme Court of Victoria. By opting out, you will lose the right to any monetary compensation from any settlement reached between the parties and subsequently approved by the Court, or from any judgment by the Court, but you keep your right to seek compensation in an action you may start yourself or in which you may participate.

Option 3: Do nothing and remain a group member in the WiseTech Class Action, but if a settlement is reached at any point up until two weeks before the commencement of the initial trial, then, subject to any further order of the Court, you will not be permitted to participate in that settlement, and your right to claim against WiseTech in relation to the matters raised in the class action may be extinguished.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE WISETECH CLASS ACTION

A: What is a class action?

1. A class action, also known as a group proceeding, is an action that is brought by one or more plaintiff(s) on behalf of themselves and group members against one or more defendant(s), where the plaintiff(s) and the group members have similar claims against the defendant(s).

2. Group members are bound by any judgment or settlement entered into in the class action unless they choose not to participate by “opting out” of the proceeding. This means that:
 - (a) if the class action is successful, registered group members may be eligible for a share of any settlement monies or Court-awarded damages;
 - (b) if the class action is unsuccessful, group members are bound by that result; and
 - (c) regardless of the outcome of the class action, group members will not be able to pursue their claims against the defendant(s) in separate legal proceedings unless they have opted out.
3. If you consider that you have a claim against WiseTech based on your individual circumstances or otherwise additional to the claims described in the WiseTech Class Action, it is important that you seek independent legal advice about the potential binding effect of the class action before the deadline for opting out.

B. What is the WiseTech Class Action?

1. The WiseTech Class Action alleges that between 21 August 2019 to 27 May 2020 inclusive (the Claim Period), WiseTech:

 - (b) failed to comply with its continuous disclosure obligations as an ASX-listed company, in relation to the information it provided (and/or failed to provide) to investors during the claim period about its expected future earnings and contingent consideration liabilities.(together WiseTech’s alleged misconduct).
2. The WiseTech Class Action also alleges that group members suffered loss and damage as a result of WiseTech’s alleged misconduct.
3. Alternatively, it is alleged that some group members would not have purchased shares in WiseTech or WiseTech Swaps, had WiseTech’s alleged misconduct not occurred.
4. The plaintiff, Mr Mark Laricchia, has commenced a class action on behalf of himself and all shareholders who acquired an interest in WiseTech Shares, or acquired long exposure to WiseTech Shares by entering into WiseTech Swaps, during the Claim Period (21 August 2019 to 27 May 2020 inclusive).
5. WiseTech denies the claims made against it and is defending the WiseTech Class Action.
6. The detailed allegations are set out in the Further Amended Statement of Claim dated 5 December 2025, and WiseTech’s response is set out in its Defence to the Further Amended Statement of Claim dated 6 February 2026. Copies of these documents are available at <https://phifinney-mcdonald.com/action/wisetech-shareholder-class-action/>.
7. The Court has ordered the parties to attend a mediation by no later than 30 November 2026.

If you do not wish to be a group member you can remove yourself by opting out of the WiseTech Class Action by 4.00pm AEST on 3 July 2026.

To opt out, you must complete and submit an Online Opt Out at: <https://www.supremecourt.vic.gov.au/areas/group-proceedings/wisotech-class-action/opting-out>; or complete and submit an Opt Out Form found at Schedule 2 of this Notice and return a copy of the notice to the Supreme Court Registry of the Supreme Court of Victoria by post or email to the addresses on the Form.

If you opt out of the WiseTech Class Action, you:

- (a) will not be bound by any order, judgment, or settlement in the class action;
- (b) will not be entitled to share in the benefit of any order, judgment, or settlement in the class action; and
- (c) may be able to commence your own separate proceedings against WiseTech, provided you issue those proceedings within the time limit applicable to your claim.

If you are unsure about how opting out will affect your rights, you should seek independent legal advice about your claim and the applicable time limit prior to opting out.

Opt Outs received after 3 July 2026 will not be accepted without leave of the Court, and will be treated as having not responded to this Notice, subject to any Court order.

OPTION 3: DO NOTHING

If you do nothing in response to this Notice (i.e. neither register, nor opt out) you will remain a group member and remain bound by any order, judgment or settlement in the WiseTech Class Action.

However, if a settlement is reached between the parties at any point up until two weeks before the first day of the initial trial, and that settlement is approved by the Court, you will not be entitled to obtain any benefit pursuant to such a settlement, without leave of the Court.

You will be bound by the settlement, if approved by the Court, and you may lose your right to bring your own claim against WiseTech for matters related to, or similar to, the claims that are the subject of the class action.

If the class action is not settled at any point up until the commencement of the initial trial, you will be bound by the final judgment. If the Court finds in favour of the plaintiff and group members, you may be entitled to obtain compensation and/or damages, if you satisfy the eligibility criteria set down by the Court.

Doing nothing means you may not receive further updates about the class action. If you wish to be kept informed but do not wish to register or opt out, you can contact the plaintiff's lawyers, Phi Finney McDonald, using the contact details set out below.

E. Funding of the WiseTech Class Action

4. The Court has made a Group Costs Order (GCO) in the WiseTech Class Action at a rate of 35% inclusive of GST, subject to further order.

 - (b) the Court may order that further amounts are to be paid from any resolution sum to a Court-appointed settlement administrator and/or to the plaintiff himself; and

- (c) the Court will assess whether the legal costs proposed to be deducted from any resolution sum are fair and reasonable. You will be given a notice at that time informing you of the amount which is proposed to be deducted and given an opportunity to tell the Court if you agree or disagree with what is proposed.
6. If the class action is unsuccessful:
- (a) Group members will not pay any costs associated with the class action.
 - (b) Group members will not be liable for the costs of the defendant.
